

Los Angeles Community College District

Sustainability Conference 2005

“Get Real, Be Sustainable”

The Los Angeles Community College District is proud to present the 4th annual sustainability conference. The conference tackles the theories that govern sustainable development and the economics that make it possible.

* * * *

Join us as we listen to national experts and local leaders in the field of sustainable development discuss their visions, experiences and suggestions on how to Get Real, Be Sustainable.

Sustainable Development: Development that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

--UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs

Friday, December 2nd, 2005

Millennium Biltmore Hotel

506 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90071

LACCD Sustainability Conference 2005

8:00am-5:30pm

Free Admission

Join construction managers, architects, engineers, school administrators, faculty, staff, students and others who want to learn about sustainable building practices.

U.S. Green Building Council Gala Dinner

6:00pm-10:00pm

$250/person

The awards dinner will bring together event sponsors with statewide and national leaders in the field of sustainable development.

www.propositiona.org

LACCD is undertaking the largest LEED™ program in the United States. The building program is a $2.2 billion capital improvement program over the next six years, funded under the Proposition A and AA Bond Programs.